After realising that Pacific Harbour Golf Club had incorrectly deleted our booking made some 12 months earlier, and having booked another group of some 100 players in our place, the Match Committee set about repairing the damage of the snafu within the limited time available to them on Friday afternoon.

The first thing was to secure an alternative course for the estimated 40 players, or so, who had booked a game for Monday. Then it was a matter of quickly advising all members of the change of venue, a matter which is made more difficult due to a number of members not having an e-mail facility.

Results - Brisbane Golf Club - 1 November 2010
	A Grade	Score	B Grade	Score
1st	Adrian Alzino	61	Joe Romano	65
2nd	Ernie Ward	63	Domenica De Pasquale	66
3rd	Jim Corser	65	Jack Rosa	66
NTPs	Richard Kinderman Jr, Ernie Ward
Guest	Lloyd Passey 72

However, with some recent experience gained through two washed-out games the committee soon managed to bed down the event. The alternative venue was the Brisbane Golf Club at Yeerongpilly. This is one of the oldest golf clubs, having been established in 1896 and having produced a number of top golf professionals. The weather which greeted the players was overcast and pleasantly cool, which made playing conditions quite pleasant. The course was damp and soft and some of the greens had a thin layer of sand which made accurate putting a real challenge. However, as can be seen from the scores, most players did very well.
