Commonwealth Bank Cup Tournament, break-up BBQ dinner and trophies presentations.

The annual Commonwealth Cup tournament will be held in conjunction with our break-up function on Sunday 11th December at Virginia. The game is a four-ball best-ball Stableford format. The winning pair will each receive a handsome replica of the perpetual trophy. Shotgun start 12.00 pm.

As you already know, this event is completely free of charge to all financial members of our club. The game (including carts) and all food and drinks at the dinner.

In addition, all children and grand-children of members who are up to & including the age of 10 will receive a gift from Santa Claus and will also be entitled to free food and drinks at the dinner. Please advise Harry Linari by the 29th November the names, gender and age of your invited children so we can organize appropriate gifts for the various ages. As you can appreciate, we need some time to do this correctly.

Guests will be most welcome and the following nominal costs will be charged on the day: Golf (including cart) $35pp, Dinner (with unlimited food and drinks) $35pp. Please ensure that you take care of your guests' payment by settling with Harry Linari on the day.
