February Birthdays

Happy Birthday to....

Ian Porteous 3rd, Pino Borzillo 4th, Ryan Gaske 6th,
Kevin Taylor 15th, Bruno Doller 23rd, Lawrie Semple 24th.

As you all may recall, last Monday's scheduled game at Virginia (5th March) was cancelled due to the inclement weather.

However, our catering "department" had already organized the panini for the day, and they were duly picked up, freshly made, at 6.00 am.

Small problem. Enough Panini to feed 60 people, but no people to feed.

Not a problem for irrepresible Vice-Captain Ernie ward. There are many homeless people who are looked after by the Salvation Army who could be fed with said panini so, in no time, he was off to their collection centre to hand over our fresh goods.

Rumour has it that the recipients liked the fare so much that they now turn up their nose at other options.

GOOD MOVE ERNIE!

(PS .That's Ernie in the photo modelling a new line in his latest in a collection of Aztec/Mayan golf shirts which will be issued to all new members who join the club in the next week. Collars will cost extra.)

ITALIAN GOLF CLASSIC 1st June 2012

Arrangements are under way for the 7th Italian Golf Classic tournament to be held at Virginia G.C. on Friday 1st Jun 2012 to coincide with the Italian Republic week-long festivities.

The format will be a 4-ball Ambrose event and we urge all members to put a team together and register early. It's a fun day with plenty of value for each participant. Lots of food, drinks and prizes, as in past years. A brochure has been attached to your Newsletter for your registration. Get it in early. Do it now!

Juniors Update

Two of our Juniors, Ryan Gaske and Sam Luton, will be attending the South Australian IGA Junior Pro-am in Adelaide on 15-16 April representing IGA Queensland.

Blake Proverbs will be unavailable to go as he is participating in the Queensland U/18 Team contesting the National Juniors Interstate Series.

We wish all of our fine young golfers the very best of luck in their respective tournaments.
