IGA OLD – PRESIDENT’S REPORT – 2015

It is with great pleasure that I present the 2015 President’s Report. The past year has seen us win the Festival City Challenge Cup, play at top courses, distribute prizes to our winners, hope to our losers and share a joke and a laugh with our fellow members. It is this friendly rivalry and banter that keeps us wanting to come back for the next game. This is the IGA.

Finances

The trading operations of the Club have resulted in a net loss of around $10,000. The outcome has been consistent with member requests of prior years, whereby there was a call to increase benefits and decrease cash reserves.

The member benefits have included the Christmas break up, the RQ dinner dance and the annual presentation dinner. Despite the additional social activity outlays, the Club has maintained its commitment to fostering junior talent by continuing to sponsor Junior Golf. The recently departed IGA junior ambassadors, such as Ryan Gaske and Blake Proverbs have been a testament to this program.

Notwithstanding the above, the committee is forever mindful of responsible stewardship.

Sponsorship

We are forever grateful to all our sponsors, businesses and individuals alike, most of whom have supported us generously over the years. Naturally without their support the IGA would only be a shadow of what it is today.

Special thanks must go to our longstanding major sponsor, which is the Commonwealth Bank and I also make mention of Ferrari Brisbane who have just recently come on board. In relation to all our sponsors we trust that this mutual goodwill and tradition continues well into the future.

Socials

As mentioned earlier there have been three major functions throughout the year, which were well attended. These functions were the Christmas break up at Virginia Golf Club, the RQ dinner dance and the annual presentation night at Victoria Park. All functions were free to members and partners. It was also pleasing to see that some members brought along paying guests.

Organisation

I take this opportunity in thanking all the committee members who have attended the monthly meetings, assisted in various/numerous ways behind the scenes to ensure the smooth running of the Club together with enjoyment for each and every member.
