Breakas Beach Resort hosts new golf challenge

Alan Salpietro, owner of the famous Breakas Beach Resort in Port Vila, Vanuatu, organized a small group of six IGA golfers to take on a selected team of Aussie ex-pats residing in Vanuatu in a tournament played over 3 days. This is the first of many annual events which are planned to be held in future. The event has been baptized "The Breakas-Vanuatu Trophy".

The attendees from Brisbane were Lou Parolin, Joe Romano, Rosario Adamo, Laurence Rotolone, Harry Linari and, of course, Alan Salpietro.

The boys were accommodated at the resort and were royally looked after in every way.

The local team showed some good golfing skills and were narrowly defeated by the IGA over the three-day tournament. Congratulations go to our representatives who gave a good account of themselves.

Golf is even better with good food, good wine and good company. A wonderful combination.

To the victors go the spoils. Presentation of the annual Breakas-Vanuatu trophy to IGA Qld team captain Alan Salpietro.

The combined protagonists before doing battle.
