Annual subscriptions still due

The majority of members have paid up their annual subscriptions. However, there still remain around a dozen, or so who have not yet paid. We remind members that our committee conducts the business of our club on a voluntary basis, many of them are still busily involved in running their own business. We ask that you assist them by avoiding such delays which cause unnecessary follow-ups. Please pay your subscriptions promptly.

Members bringing visitors

Just a reminder that when a member invites a visitor to our game, it is his responsibility to ensure that the guest's Golf Australia registration number is entered on his score card. Otherwise his score will not be recorded with the Golflink toward his handicap history.
